

One word story

You're going to make up a story with your Buddy - but there's a twist! You're going to take it in turns to build up the story, each adding just one word at a time.

Don't worry too much about which words to choose - just pick the ones that first pop into your head, and before you know it you'll be creating an incredible tale together on the spot!

